

NEEL PATEL

FRONT-END DEVELOPER

ABOUT ME

As a front-end developer, I possess a strong proficiency in HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. I have also explored the Bootstrap framework, which enables me to create websites efficiently. Additionally, I have ventured into Python and completed several introductory projects using Django. Although my back-end knowledge remains somewhat limited, I am eager to enhance my skills and contribute significantly to the organization's success.
